

Board Review of Administrative Regulations

Administrative regulations may be put in place and enforced by the Administrative Director without requiring Board review or approval. The Board, however, reserves the right to review administrative regulations at its discretion.

The Administrative Director will strive to make the Board aware of any administrative regulations which cause or are likely to cause a significant negative reaction from the community, students, or staff in advance of issuance by the Administrator.