

Board-Staff Communications

The Board desires to maintain open channels of communication between itself and the staff. In the interests of efficient administration, however, the basic line of communication between the Board and its employees, including supervisory staff, teaching staff, and support staff, will be through the Administrative Director.

4006

Adopted 11-21-02
Revised 10-24-12
Reviewed 12-21-16
Reviewed 3-24-21

Board-Staff Communications

In order to facilitate communications between the Board and staff, the following rules shall apply.

Staff Communication to the Board - All official communication reports to the Board or any Board committee from supervisors or support staff shall be submitted through the Administrative Director.

Board Communications to Staff - All official communication policies, and directives of staff interest and concern communicated to staff members through the Administrative Director.

4006-R

Adopted 11-21-02
Revised 10-24-12
Revised 12-21-16